Seeing the Full Picture When We Look Back

by Mary Carver

Our lives are full of both joy and pain - often at the very same time. And that's okay. We can acknowledge both. We can hold both. And we can worship God through both.

The good parts of the year are actually richer because of the pain and doubt and struggle that winds through the weeks and months. Only by seeing the good and the hard intertwined and overlapping do we see how faithful God has been to us.

He's not just here when we're happy. He's not just here when we're grateful. He's not just here when we're rock solid, believing with all our heart. He's here no matter what. He's here no matter how much our circumstances, our life, or our heart change.

He's here, and He never changes!

„,and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age. Amen.“
Matthew 28:20

“Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever.“
Hebrews 13:8
